

ADR DRIVER CERTIFICATE—1.5 DAY ADD-ON TRAINING COURSES

WHAT IS IT?

Under the Agreement Concerning the International Carriage of Dangerous Goods by Road (ADR), drivers of vehicles carrying dangerous goods must hold an ADR Certificate appropriate to the hazard class(es) of the goods they carry and the way they will carry them (in packages or tanks).

Drivers with an existing certificate can upgrade with additional classes or modes that they do not currently hold.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Driver that have a certificate to carry dangerous goods in packages that now wish to add the ability to carry them in tanks.

Our add-on training courses are designed to enable those attending to pass the relevant SQA exams required to obtain their upgrade their existing ADR certificate.

WHAT DOES IT COST?

ADR 1.5 Day Tanks Add-on Training Course – £180.00 per person. Price includes exam fees, refreshments and VAT
7 hours of Driver CPC Qualification can be added for only £12.00 including VAT

WHAT DOES THE COURSE COVER?

The training is delivered over 1.5 days using a mixture of presentations, videos, practical demonstrations and written exercises, and a comprehensive set of course notes is issued to all candidates. The course content includes:

- Tanks Module

The Tanks exam is conducted on the afternoon of the second day.

Candidates must then take multiple choice exams based on these modules, with a required pass mark of 70% to be awarded their ADR Certificate.

This course is intended for drivers who currently hold an ADR certificate for dangerous goods carried 'Other Than Tanks' (packages or bulk).
